

Dear community member,

As we begin the auspicious month of Ramadan, I would like to extend my good wishes to you and your family members.

We are fortunate to have another month of Ramadan-ul-Mubarak in our lives. In this blessed month of fasting, prayers and worship, we are humbled before Allah Almighty and seek his boundless mercy and forgiveness. May this sacred month be a source of spiritual elevation and guidance for all of us.

Lets pray to Allah Almighty for the health and happiness of all our near and dear ones and the stability and progress of our country and well being of our nation in this blessed month.

Ramadan Mubarak.
